Subject: Internship for M.Sc. students majoring in Human Development/ Early Childhood Education for 1 month (4 weeks).

Sir/Madam,

The Post Graduate Department of Human Development offers two masters programmes with 96 credits each, namely M.Sc. in Human Development and M.Sc. in Early Childhood Education. Duration for both the courses is 2 years and run through 4 semesters. Both specializations have some common subjects, M.Sc. in Human Development includes subjects like Advance study in Human Development, Issues in Early Childhood Education, Psychological Testing, Guidance and Counselling, Children with Special Needs, Human Resource Development, Adolescence and Adulthood, Working with Elderly, while M.Sc. in Early Childhood Education includes Advance study in Early Childhood Education, Curriculum Planning, Guiding Young Children and Preschool Organization, Administration and Management. Both the courses have equal weightage of theory and practical components. During second year, students undertake dissertations under the supervision of faculty members.

During fourth semester students are expected to do internship which has weightage of 8 credits. As part of internship, department intends to give students an exposure to functioning of organizations which deal with developmental activities, research, testing and intervention programme for children, women, youth, adults and the elderly.

The students will be placed in different organizations or institutes for one month full time i.e. 8 hours per day for internship.

If permitted, the Department requests the organization to provide a mentor or supervisor under whom a student will work. The student may be paid for the said duration, if provisions are available with the organization.

Thank you,

-Sd/-
